

David Faber is the Superintendent of Catholic Schools in the Diocese of Grand Rapids. He Holds his M.Ed. In Educational Leadership from Grand Valley State University and his B.S. in Elementary Education from Franciscan University. As a certified K-12 administrator and K-8 teacher, he spent his first four years teaching fifth grade in Zeeland, MI, and 17 years as an elementary principal (P-8) at St. Thomas the Apostle School in Grand Rapids, MI.